ELY NOW A MAMMOTH CAMP

No Exaggeration Needed to Maintain Its Prominence

M. L. Requa, of all other the man to whom Ely, Nev., is indebted for its reclamation and its luster as a star in the armament of copper, is again at the general offices of the Nevada Copper Co. in Salt Lake.

It was in September, 1902, that he found the courage to commend Ely copper properties to the world as a safe investment and the pioneer company which was to be succeeded by the present was launched. With which to dig and to exploit his convictions that within the zone was one of the greatest of copper mines, he resorted to the sale of shares on which a valuation of 25 cents was placed.
The contents of the treasury exhaused, he began to draw upon the whom he had rallied for a half cent a share dipping into his own pocket for the greater portion of it. Finally he became bold enough, with the copper bearing ores responding every shot, to ask for an assessment of a cent a share.

This was criticised and those who thought it extravagant lost no time in ridiculing themselves of their holdings. That was four years ago. Since that time the shares have sold for better than $20 and the properties of the company on a basis exceeding $20,000,000, while on yesterday's market they were eagerly sought by those conversant with their resources at better than $18,000,000.

Having developed a tonnage of copper, gold and silver-bearing ore, the extent of which it is almost impossible to compute, Mr. Requa began the campaign of equipment. Not only does this contemplate a huge construction and furnaces with which to reduce the output of this, but a line of railway. The latter, the Nevada Northern, is approaching completion.
Upon the mill and the smelter construction is to begin at once. The former will have a capacity of 3,000 tons a day to begin with; the latter to be equipped for the reduction of whatever tonnage of concentrates shall be produced at the mill. Ultimately the mill will be equipped for the reduction of 10,000 tons of ore daily, the furnaces to be correspondingly increased.

Mr. Requa, who retains the management of the undertaking at the solicitation of the Guggenheim Exploration company, which induced him to part with the control a short time ago said during the day that an inability to procure labor has delayed the construction of the railway which is at present nearing the camp, and as work on the plants cannot begin until means of transportation are provided the latter is accordingly delayed.—Salt Lake Republican.

The Truth At Last

The voters of Nevada, who believe in the free coinage of silver, and who have been told that the Republican party is not responsible for the death of the cause, are referred to this clause in a leading editorial in the Reno Gazette of last Saturday:
"Free silver has been abolished by Republican victories, and by Republican statutes."

This is a very broad admission for the leading Republican paper in a State like Nevada to make. However the Gazette cannot refrain from telling the truth once in a while; and this is one of those times. Let the people remember this statement next fall when they are told by the G. O. P. spell binders that "the Republican party is as friendly as any other toward silver."—Nevada Herald.

Bank Vaults All Right

It was learned yesterday that the contents of the bank vaults in San Francisco are unharmed. One of the vaults of the Bank of California was opened, and every article within was found as perfect as the day it was placed there. Papers, coin and all other articles are intact. It is now believed that the vaults of the other banks may be opened without danger to their contents. This will enable the financial institutions to extend their business in the usual channels.

Nevada Meat Market Is Firm

Reno, May 11.—Nevada cattlemen and packers say the San Francisco calamity will not depress prices in this State. "When the San Francisco fire occurred," said H. G. Humphrey, of the Sparks-Humphrey Meat Company, "there was a shortage of beef cattle in this State. So strong had been the demand from both East and West that the best stock had all been bought up. The East is still a bidder for Nevada stock, and if there should be a break in California prices Nevada stock will go to Chicago, Denver and Kansas City. There is no reason why the California market should weaken. San Francisco must be rebuilt, and the men who will be employed to do it will be bread and meat eaters."

Other Nevada packers and buyers take a similar view of the situation.
